Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director of Training
THRU : Chief, Operations School, OTR
FROM : Chief Overseas, Operations School, OTR

DATE: 3 June 1959

SUBJECT: Weekly Activity Report #22

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS:

None to report.

B. OTHER ITEMS:1. OF PLANS AND PERSONNEL:

25X1A9A Anticipating that by 1 August [REDACTED] 25X1A9A
[REDACTED] will join Overseas Training, our "editorial board" met in solemn conclave to draw up tentative plans for the coming months (to include two-week vacations for each of its members!). The contributions to Overseas Training made 25X1A9A by [REDACTED] were always appreciated, but we realized fully the extent of our loss only when we attempted to find their replacements. We feel that Messrs.
25X1A9A [REDACTED] will be the answer to our problem.

The "board" also reviewed the "Survey of Training Materials Currently Needed in OTR," dated 30 July 1958, along with [REDACTED] comments. 25X1A9A
Only a few of the items listed have been completed in the past year and most of the items would appear in a similar survey compiled today. Our present opinion is that the five items which tentatively enjoy highest priority are:
the Nuclear Warfare Handbook; the Guerrilla Warfare Guide with annexes; the Training Syllabus on International Communism; the PP Guide; and a somewhat expanded edition of the Tradecraft Guide.

2. TRAINING MATERIALS IN PREPARATION:

25X1A9A a. Nuclear Warfare Handbook: On 27 May [REDACTED] 25X1A9A
visited [REDACTED] SR/RQM, and obtained collection 25X1A9A guides on guided missiles, missile equipped submarines and nuclear submarines. He also met that day with Tom [REDACTED] OTR/Graphics, and arranged for some sketches to be prepared for inclusion in the handbook.

c. Field Officer's Guide to Intelligence Information Reporting: We have requested a rerun of 100 copies of the Reporting Guide (see page 4, WAR #20, 20 May), since we have learned from [REDACTED] that they're cheaper by the hundred.

f. English Index to U.S. Army's English-Chinese Dictionary of Terms: On 29 May we sent the original and one thermofax copy of [REDACTED] 573-page [REDACTED] developed index to [REDACTED] Acting Chief of [REDACTED] Division. This is an index to the publication compiled in 1954 by the U.S. Army's 500th Military Intelligence Group, APO 613, and was recently sent back to Headquarters "for eventual publication and distribution to interested parties." Since we could locate no one in OTR who wished to reproduce the document, we asked Jim to take the matter up with the Army and explore the extent of their interest. He readily agreed and will inform us of their reaction. Tony visited me Tuesday morning and I promised to let him know if the Army shows an interest in his magnum opus.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] We were very lucky in having on our shelves the sanitized version of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] apparently just what the field is looking for. On 28 May, after informing [REDACTED] on the desk, we obtained CI clearance to release six copies of the document to Pete, with authorization to turn them over to the trainees subject to concurrence of the field station.
